Event 6. Spell Wiz

Each participating school can depute as many student participants in each group. Each participant will have to fill a separate entry form/s.

1. Format: The spelling wiz is conducted in rounds. Each speller remaining in the spelling wiz at the start of a round spells one word in each round. The pronouncer will spell words from speller's Std./ Grade level for 4 rounds then proceed to the next Std./Grade level for 4 rounds and continue to move up grade levels as needed until a champion emerges.

2. Word list: Standard Oxford English words according to the respective Std./Grades and higher will be carefully chosen by the Event Panel. In the case that there is a spelling standoff, official may use words from an advanced grade word list.

3. Special needs: The Event Panel will strive to provide accommodation for spellers who have physical challenges. All requests to accommodate special needs involving sight, hearing, speech, or movement should be directed to event officials well in advance of the spelling wiz date. The judges have discretionary power to amend oral and/or written spelling requirements on a case-by-case basis for spellers with diagnosed medical conditions involving sight, hearing, speech, or movement impairment.

4. Pronouncer's role: The pronouncer strives to pronounce words according to the word lists and Oxford Dictionary.

1) Homonyms: If a word with the same pronunciation has more than one meaning, the pronouncer indicates which word is to be spelled by defining the word.

2) Speller's requests: The pronouncer responds to the speller's requests for a definition sentence or alternate pronunciation. When presented with requests for alternate pronunciations, the pronouncer or an aide to the pronouncer checks for alternate pronunciations in the Oxford Dictionary. The pronouncer does not entertain root word questions or requests for alternate definitions.

3) Pronouncer's sense of helpfulness: The pronouncer may offer word information—without the er having requested the information—if the pronouncer senses that the information is helpful.

5. Judges' role: The judges uphold the rules and determine whether or not the words are spelt correctly. They are in complete control of the competition, and their decision is final on all questions, procedures and course of the Spell Wiz. Parental interruptions will be subject to their child's disqualification.

6. Interaction with the speller: Because seeing the speller's lip movement may be critical in detecting misunderstandings or wrong spellings, the judges encourage spellers to face them when they pronounce and spell the word.

7. Notice of rules: The judges ensure that all spellers and audience members are given an opportunity to receive a complete copy of the rules prior to the start of the spelling wiz.

8. Misunderstandings: The judges participate in the exchange of the information between the speller and pronouncer if they feel that clarification is needed. Also, the judges listen carefully to the speller's pronunciation of the word; and, if they sense that the speller has misunderstood the word, the judges work with the speller and pronouncer until they are satisfied that reasonable attempts have been made to assist the speller in understanding the word. While the judges are responsible for attempting to detect a speller's misunderstanding, it is sometimes impossible to detect a misunderstanding until a spelling error has been made: The judges are not responsible for the speller's misunderstanding.

9. Pronouncer's errors: If the judges feel that the pronouncer's pronunciation does not match the correct word pronunciation, the judges direct the pronouncer to correct the error as soon as it is detected.

10. Disqualifications for reasons other than clear misspelling:

The judges will disqualify a speller (1) who refuses a request to start spelling; (2) who does not approach the microphone when it is time to receive the word; (3) who does not comply with the eligibility requirements; (4) who engages in cheating or unsportsmanlike conduct; (5) who, in the process of spelling a word starts over and alters the letters or sequence of letters from those first uttered; (6) who, in the process of spelling, utters unintelligible or nonsense sounds; (7) for failing to spell a word with correct punctuation (ie, hyphens & apostrophes; or (8) who's parents harass or interrupt the Judges/or Pronouncer. Speller activities that do not merit disqualification: The judges may not disqualify a speller (1) for failing to pronounce the word either before or after spelling it, (2) for asking a question, or (3) for noting or failing to note the capitalization of a word.

11. Speller's role: The speller makes an effort to face the judges and pronounce the word for the judges before spelling it and after spelling it. The speller while facing the judges makes an effort to utter each letter distinctly and with sufficient volume to be understood by the judges. The speller may ask the pronouncer to say the word again, define it, use it in a sentence, and/or provide an alternate pronunciation(s). Misunderstandings: The speller is responsible for any misunderstanding of the word unless (1) the pronouncer never provided a correct pronunciation; (2) the pronouncer provided incorrect information regarding the definition; or (3) the speller correctly spelled a homonym of the word and the pronouncer failed to either offer a definition or distinguish the homonyms.

12. Correction of a misspelling: The pronouncer and judges will not ask the speller to correct another speller's misspelling, even in end-of-bee circumstances.

13. Misspelling: Upon incorrectly spelling a word, the speller immediately drops out of the competition, except as provided in Rule 10.

14. End-of-wiz procedure:

If all spellers in a round misspell: If none of the spellers remaining in the spelling bee at the start of a round spells a word correctly during that round, all remain in the competition and a new round begins. If only one speller in a round spells correctly:

If only one speller spells correctly in a round, a new one word round begins and the speller is given an opportunity to spell the next word on the list (anticipated championship word). If the speller succeeds in correctly spelling the anticipated championship word in this one-word round, the speller is declared the champion. Example: In Round 12 there are four spellers. Spellers 1 and 2 misspell. Speller 3 spells correctly. Speller 4 misspells. So, Speller 3 is the only speller in the round to spell correctly. Speller 3 begins Round 13—a one-word round—and is offered the anticipated championship word. Speller 3 correctly spells the anticipated championship word and is declared champion. Example: Two spellers spell in Round 10. Speller 1 misspells. Speller 2 spells correctly. Speller 2 begins Round 11—a one-word round—and is offered the anticipated championship word. Speller 2 correctly spells the anticipated championship word and is declared champion. Example: Two spellers spell in Round 16. Speller 1 spells correctly. Speller 2 misspells. Speller 1 begins Round 17—a one-word round—and is offered the anticipated championship word. Speller 1 correctly spells the anticipated championship word and is declared champion.

How to establish 2 and 3rd place winners: 2 and 3 Place of order is established by seat placement. Example: Three spellers remain. Speller 1 misspells. Speller 2 misspells. Speller 3 spells correctly and rd nd then spells championship word correctly to win. Speller 1 than becomes 3 place and speller 2 becomes 2 place.

VERY IMPORTANT: If a speller misspells the anticipated championship word in a one-word round: A new round begins with ALL the spellers who spelled (correctly and incorrectly) in the previous round. These spellers spell in their original order. Example: In Round 8 there are three spellers. Speller 1 spells correctly and Spellers 2 and 3 misspell. Round 9—a one word round—begins, and Speller 1 is offered the anticipated championship word. Speller 1 misspells the anticipated championship word. Round 10 begins and includes Spellers 1, 2, and 3. The rules prescribe that spellers 1, 2, and 3 spell in their original order; so Speller 1 gets the next word on the list even though Speller 1 misspelled the previous word on the list. Round 10 is not complete until all three spellers have spelled. There shall be a separate judge designated to track the progress of spellers throughout the rounds to avoid any end of wiz confusion.

Event 7. Spell Wiz

Each participating school can depute as many student participants in each group. Each participant will have to fill a separate entry form/s.

1. Format: The spelling wiz is conducted in rounds. Each speller remaining in the spelling wiz at the start of a round spells one word in each round. The pronouncer will spell words from speller's Std./ Grade level for 4 rounds then proceed to the next Std./Grade level for 4 rounds and continue to move up grade levels as needed until a champion emerges.

2. Word list: Standard Oxford English words according to the respective Std./Grades and higher will be carefully chosen by the Event Panel. In the case that there is a spelling standoff, official may use words from an advanced grade word list.

3. Special needs: The Event Panel will strive to provide accommodation for spellers who have physical challenges. All requests to accommodate special needs involving sight, hearing, speech, or movement should be directed to event officials well in advance of the spelling wiz date. The judges have discretionary power to amend oral and/or written spelling requirements on a case-by-case basis for spellers with diagnosed medical conditions involving sight, hearing, speech, or movement impairment.

4. Pronouncer's role: The pronouncer strives to pronounce words according to the word lists and Oxford Dictionary.

1) Homonyms: If a word with the same pronunciation has more than one meaning, the pronouncer indicates which word is to be spelled by defining the word.

2) Speller's requests: The pronouncer responds to the speller's requests for a definition sentence or alternate pronunciation. When presented with requests for alternate pronunciations, the pronouncer or an aide to the pronouncer checks for alternate pronunciations in the Oxford Dictionary. The pronouncer does not entertain root word questions or requests for alternate definitions.

3) Pronouncer's sense of helpfulness: The pronouncer may offer word information—without the speller having requested the information—if the pronouncer senses that the information is helpful.

5. Judges' role: The judges uphold the rules and determine whether or not the words are spelt correctly. They are in complete control of the competition, and their decision is final on all questions, procedures and course of the Spell Wiz. Parental interruptions will be subject to their child's disqualification.

6. Interaction with the speller: Because seeing the speller's lip movement may be critical in detecting misunderstandings or wrong spellings, the judges encourage spellers to face them when they pronounce and spell the word.

7. Notice of rules: The judges ensure that all spellers and audience members are given an opportunity to receive a complete copy of the rules prior to the start of the spelling wiz.

8. Misunderstandings: The judges participate in the exchange of the information between the speller and pronouncer if they feel that clarification is needed. Also, the judges listen carefully to the speller's pronunciation of the word; and, if they sense that the speller has misunderstood the word, the judges work with the speller and pronouncer until they are satisfied that reasonable attempts have been made to assist the speller in understanding the word. While the judges are responsible for attempting to detect a speller's misunderstanding, it is sometimes impossible to detect a misunderstanding until a spelling error has been made: The judges are not responsible for the speller's misunderstanding.

9. Pronouncer's errors: If the judges feel that the pronouncer's pronunciation does not match the correct word pronunciation, the judges direct the pronouncer to correct the error as soon as it is detected.

10. Disqualifications for reasons other than clear misspelling:

The judges will disqualify a speller (1) who refuses a request to start spelling; (2) who does not approach the microphone when it is time to receive the word; (3) who does not comply with the eligibility requirements; (4) who engages in cheating or unsportsmanlike conduct; (5) who, in the process of spelling a word starts over and alters the letters or sequence of letters from those first uttered; (6) who, in the process of spelling, utters unintelligible or nonsense sounds; (7) for failing to spell a word with correct punctuation (i.e., hyphens & apostrophes; or (8) who's parents harass or interrupt the Judges/or Pronouncer. Speller activities that do not merit disqualification: The judges may not disqualify a speller (1) for failing to pronounce the word either before or after spelling it, (2) for asking a question, or (3) for noting or failing to note the capitalization of a word.

11. Speller's role: The speller makes an effort to face the judges and pronounce the word for the judges before spelling it and after spelling it. The speller while facing the judges makes an effort to utter each letter distinctly and with sufficient volume to be understood by the judges. The speller may ask the pronouncer to say the word again, define it, use it in a sentence, and/or provide an alternate pronunciation(s). Misunderstandings: The speller is responsible for any misunderstanding of the word unless (1) the pronouncer never provided a correct pronunciation; (2) the pronouncer provided incorrect information regarding the definition; or (3) the speller correctly spelled a homonym of the word and the pronouncer failed to either offer a definition or distinguish the homonyms.

12. Correction of a misspelling: The pronouncer and judges will not ask the speller to correct another speller's misspelling, even in end-of-bee circumstances.

13. Misspelling: Upon incorrectly spelling a word, the speller immediately drops out of the competition, except as provided in Rule 10.

14. End-of-wiz procedure:

If all spellers in a round misspell: If none of the spellers remaining in the spelling bee at the start of a round spells a word correctly during that round, all remain in the competition and a new round begins. If only one speller in a round spells correctly: If only one speller spells correctly in a round, a new one word round begins and the speller is given an opportunity to spell the next word on the list (anticipated championship word). If the speller succeeds in correctly spelling the anticipated championship word in this one-word round, the speller is declared the champion. Example: In Round 12 there are four spellers. Spellers 1 and 2 misspell. Speller 3 spells correctly. Speller 4 misspells. So, Speller 3 is the only speller in the round to spell correctly. Speller 3 begins Round 13—a one-word round—and is offered the anticipated championship word. Speller 3 correctly spells the anticipated championship word and is declared champion. Example: Two spellers spell in Round 10. Speller 1 misspells. Speller 2 spells correctly. Speller 2 begins Round 11—a one-word round—and is offered the anticipated championship word. Speller 2 correctly spells the anticipated championship word and is declared champion. Example: Two spellers spell in Round 16. Speller 1 spells correctly. Speller 2 misspells. Speller 1 begins Round 17—a one-word round—and is offered the anticipated championship word. Speller 1 correctly spells the anticipated championship word and is declared champion.

How to establish 2 and 3rd place winners: 2 and 3 Place of order is established by seat placement.

Example: Three spellers remain. Speller 1 misspells. Speller 2 misspells. Speller 3 spells correctly and then spells championship word correctly to win. Speller 1 then becomes 3 place and speller 2 becomes 2 place.

VERY IMPORTANT: If a speller misspells the anticipated championship word in a one-word round: A new round begins with ALL the spellers who spelled (correctly and incorrectly) in the previous round. These spellers spell in their original order. Example: In Round 8 there are three spellers. Speller 1 spells correctly and Spellers 2 and 3 misspell. Round 9—one word round—begins, and Speller 1 is offered the anticipated championship word. Speller 1 misspells the anticipated championship word. Round 10 begins and includes Spellers 1, 2, and 3. The rules prescribe that spellers 1, 2, and 3 spell in their original order; so Speller 1 gets the next word on the list even though Speller 1 misspelled the previous word on the list. Round 10 is not complete until all three spellers have spelled. There shall be a separate judge designated to track the progress of spellers throughout the rounds to avoid any end of wiz confusion.
